

The Roving Letterpress

This is a fully-functioning, portable letterpress designed and manufactured by Provisionalpress. With it, I transport a complete set of 24pt Garamont metal type and furniture out into the field to work on recording what I observe and experience in nature. The type is hand set and ultimately only one imprint is made, making the page an individual art object.

